1. Between 5 and 9 November 1951, no aircraft or flying was observed at Grossenhain airfield. Aircraft salvaged parts were being loaded on the loading ramp. Trucks [REDACTED] entered and left the field.

2. About 9:30 a.m. on 8 November, a train with crates arrived at the field. "Bay Moscow" was written on the crates as the shipper. The last Soviet dependents were to leave the field on 12 November. *

- * [REDACTED] Comment. The report confirms that the two fighter regiments had left Grossenhain airfield. The two regiments were transferred by rail to the U.S.S.R. in mid-October 1951, while their ground units probably remained at the field. The train which arrived at the field on 8 November possibly carried the equipment of a new unit from the U.S.S.R.
